What is Verde?

Food is connection. Through it we express care, love, and gratitude towards ourselves and those around us. That's why dishes with premier locally-sourced ingredients are our speciality. We are forever grateful to be considered as a part of your very own connections.

Although Verde Marketplace's physical location opened in 2023, this labor of love has been in the works for decades through Founder, Christina Geonnetti. Christina's passion for creating holistic eats that do not sacrifice delicious flavors, brought her here today. With hundreds of loyal clients who rave about her fresh plant-based meals, you are sure to finish your plate-- wanting more.
